Clapp and Distinguished Service Award honorees represent excellence in CLE

The New Jersey Institute for Continuing Legal Education (NJICLE) puts on more than 300 live and online seminars throughout the state every year, and 99 percent of the speakers and presenters do so on a voluntary basis.

A few of those many dedicated volunteers received special recognition for their work during the 27th Annual Excellence in CLE Awards Reception, held Dec. 4 at the New Jersey Law Center.

Shirley B. Whitenack, a partner at Schenck, Price, Smith & King, LLP, received the evening's highest honor as recipient of the Alfred C. Clapp Award.

Distinguished Service Awards went to New Jersey Supreme Court Justice Anne M. Patterson; Paulette Brown, a partner at Locke Lord, LLP and past president of the American Bar Association; Carol Johnston, of the Administrative Office of the Courts, New Jersey Judiciary; and Steven K. Mignogna, a shareholder with Archer & Greiner.
